

Trainer's Creed

I dedicate myself to influence the lives of youth through the training of Scouting leaders.

I promise to support and use the recommended literature, materials, and procedures as I carry out my training responsibilities.

I promise to "Be Prepared" for all sessions to assure an exciting and worthwhile training experience.

I will help leaders understand their importance to Scouting and will take a personal interest in their success.

In carrying out these responsibilities, I promise to "Do My Best,"
